

GAGA MOVEMENT LANGUAGE WORKSHOP

TEMPE, ARIZONA

JULY 30 - AUGUST 3

CONDER/dance is delighted to host a 5-day Gaga Workshop with Danielle Agami on July 30 - August 3, 2018.

Open to professional dancers and dance students ages 18 and up.

The Gaga Workshop will be taught by Danielle Agami, former Batsheva dancer/rehearsal director.

Agami is a renowned Gaga teacher and has been traveling across the world as an ambassador of Ohad Naharin's Gaga Movement Language and her own work as Artistic Director of Ate9 Dance Company.

Agami believes that in order to fully own the revelations in the body, we must understand the logic and fantasy behind each experience in class. Agami's fine, detailed explanations help her students participate intellectually, mentally, and physically all at once.

Most recently, Agami has embarked on a residency at the Center for Ballet and the Arts at NYU where she is developing a new class that allows the classical ballet structures and Gaga work to meet. This summer Agami will bring some of this research to the Tempe Gaga Movement Language Workshop.

Dates and Hours:

July 30 - August 3, 2018

10:00a - 2:00p

Content:

The workshop consist of a daily Gaga class by Danielle Agami, New Creations by Danielle Agami, Ballet-Gaga Research.

Location:

Arizona State University
Fine Arts Center Room 122
51 East 10th Street
Tempe, AZ 85281

Registration and Fee:

If paying via PayPal, there is a $9 processing charge included.

$300 by June 1, 2018.

$350 after June 1, 2018.

$200 for current ASU students.

Payment is also possible via check payable to CONDER/dance.

Mail to: 2022 East Malibu Drive, Tempe, AZ 85282.

No additional fee is required for payment by check.

Reservation of place is not complete until full payment has been received.

Participants are responsible for their own travel, food, and housing arrangements.

Questions?

Please send an email to conderdance@gmail.com